ANNIVERSARY SPECIAL

Tara Pandala

The Ernakulam architect and urban designer for the Centre of Sustainable Built and Natural Environment divides her time between two benevolent tasks. When she isn't working on conservation projects, following in the footsteps of her renowned father, mud architecture specialist Eugene Pandala, she shares her vast knowledge with students at the SCMS School of Architecture.

BIRTHDAY August 20

TYPICAL LEO QUALITIES Creativity, leadership and super organised

DESIGN ERA I'D GO BACK TO

When architecture responded to nature and all design was sustainable

Khushnu Panthaki Hoof

With a constant fascination for art, craft, textiles and culture, she works alongside her grandfather, the legendary BV Doshi for Ahmedabad based firm Sangath. She prefers that her designs take little cues from human situations rather than abstract ideas.

BIRTHDAY October 18

TYPICAL LIBRAN QUALITIES

Inquisitiveness to learn and create

ONE WAY I COULD MAKE

A DIFFERENCE TODAY I'd like to change the way we perceive modern architecture. It seems to be distancing itself from the meaning of life
